About the University

Established on 15th June, 1960, The University of Burdwan steps into the 57th year of its journey. It is located in the sprawling campus of Golapbag, erstwhile garden of Burdwan Raj. It is a campus famous for gigantic mahogany plantation, rose garden (dar-ul-bahar), rare flora and fauna. Since its inception, the University has gained a remarkable achievement in every aspect of its academic endeavour. The University is tirelessly engaged to establish a meaningful relationship with the society through hosting such academic events with social aptitude. The overall success of the University has been appreciated by NAAC in 2016 and achieved "A" Grade.

About the city Burdwan

Burdwan is a historical city located on Howrah-Delhi main rail route about 100 Kms away from Kolkata. It is well connected by bus, train & air with all major cities in India. Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose International Airport is only 100 kms away from Burdwan and connected by National Highway. Temperature during March will be comfortable.

About the Department

The Department of Biotechnology, The University of Burdwan Started its journey on 11th September, 2003 with the financial assistance of Dr. Asish Kumar Mondal, an NRI who donated two endowment chairs in memory of his late parents. The Department was chosen as one of the selected centers for conducting M.Sc. course in Biotechnology and developing infrastructural facilities for teaching and research by DBT, Govt. of India. Since inception, a number of remarkable achievements made this department as one of the best in the country. Academic excellence of this department is reflected through several alumni of this department who are well placed in different academic and research institutes as faculties, scientists, post doctoral fellows and doctoral fellows in India and abroad. Many of them are placed as officials in government and quasi-government sectors.

Objective of the Wokshop

Different techniques used for analysing bio-molecules are inhabitable and essential for basic and advanced research in the field of Biological Sciences. Researches on plant and animal secondary metabolites, their roles in curing diseases, industrial production of different active principles, tremendous impacts on extreme scope full pharmacological industry are getting enormous importance. Identification, characterization and quantification of bio-molecules are the basic criteria for the aforesaid sub-branches of researches on applied Biology. The objective of this workshop is to cope up the faculties, researchers and aspirant students from different Universities and Colleges with some basic and advanced tools like Spectroscopy (both UV-Visible and Fluorescence and Atomic Absorption Spectroscopy), Thin Layer Chromatography (TLC), High Performance Liquid Chromatography (HPLC), Gas Chromatography /Mass Spectrometry (GC/MS) Liquid Chromatography/ Mass Spectrometry, Gel Electrophoresis (both Agarose and SDS-PAGE) and Flow Cytometry in the field of modern Biology.
