MANUSCRIPT SECTION

DEPARTMENT OF BENGALI

THE UNIVERSITY OF BURDWAN

The post graduate Department of Bengali, The University of Burdwan started in the year 1960. From the very beginning, efforts were made for collecting rare manuscripts and preserve the same as far as possible. The separate Manuscript section was established in 1975. Smt. Swati Das, ex-student and the – then part time Research-Scholar of the Dept. was directed by the then Head of the Dept. Dr. Jibendra Binod Sinharoy to start the project.

The Department of Bengali was recognized as DSA by the University Grants Commission and the Manuscript Section came under DSA project in 1986. Dr. Rabiranjana Chatterjee the then Reader of the Dept. was in charge of the section for a period. After doing her Ph. D. Dr. Swati Das was promoted to the post of Manuscript Reader in 1986. In 1989 Sri Kalyan Kishore Chattopadhyay joined the section as Manuscript Keeper. Later he completed Ph.D. on BANGLA PUTHIR GHATAN O PRAKRITI in 2000 .

Manuscript Section is enriched with more than four hundreds Manuscripts and the process of collection is being continued. Some of the Manuscripts are really valuable. About nineteen Manuscripts belong to 17th. Century. The oldest Manuscript belongs to the year 1652.

A descriptive catalogue of 326 Manuscripts Vol-1-4, were published in 1989, 2008, 2009, 2010, respectively. Cataloguing of next Manuscript is going on. Most of the Manuscripts are collected from Radha-Banga- Bankura, Birbhum, Hooghly and Burdwan Districts.

Dr. Swati Das retired in the year 2007. After that Dr. Kalyan Kishore Chattopadhyay was the only employee and took the responsibility to look after the Manuscript Section.

The Manuscript Section is well preserved with A.C. facilities. Manuscript reading is also taught at the P.G. level .

We are trying to introduce facilities of Micro-films and computer.
