

DEPARTMENT OF LAW
THE UNIVERSITY OF BURDWAN

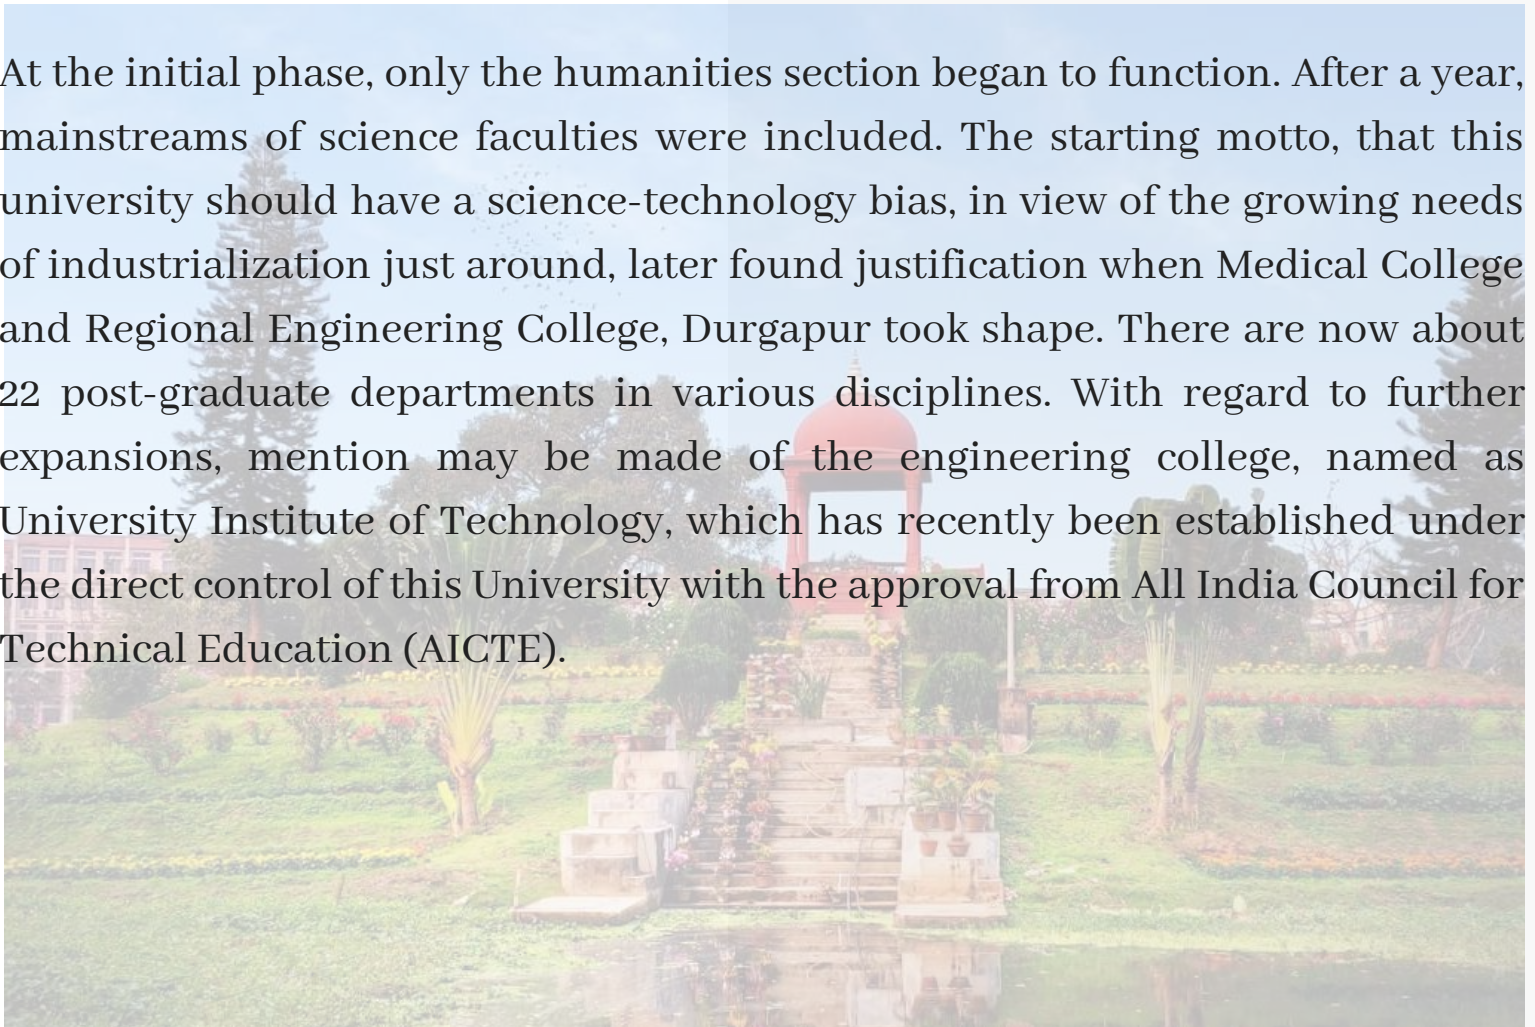

Session 2019 - 2021

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF BURDWAN

The University of Burdwan started on 15th June, 1960, with Sukumar Sen, an ICS, as its first Vice-Chancellor. It was after the abolition of the Zamindari system in the fifties that Uday Chand Mahtab, the last representative of the Burdwan Raj, showed his magnanimity in leaving almost his entire property of Burdwan at the disposal of the State Government. This, coupled with the initiative of the then Chief Minister of West Bengal, Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy, facilitated the establishment of this university. Presently, the administrative works are mostly done at Rajbati (the palace of Bardhamana Maharaja) campus; on the other hand, academic activities center around the Golapbag Campus.

At the initial phase, only the humanities section began to function. After a year, mainstreams of science faculties were included. The starting motto, that this university should have a science-technology bias, in view of the growing needs of industrialization just around, later found justification when Medical College and Regional Engineering College, Durgapur took shape. There are now about 22 post-graduate departments in various disciplines. With regard to further expansions, mention may be made of the engineering college, named as University Institute of Technology, which has recently been established under the direct control of this University with the approval from All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE).

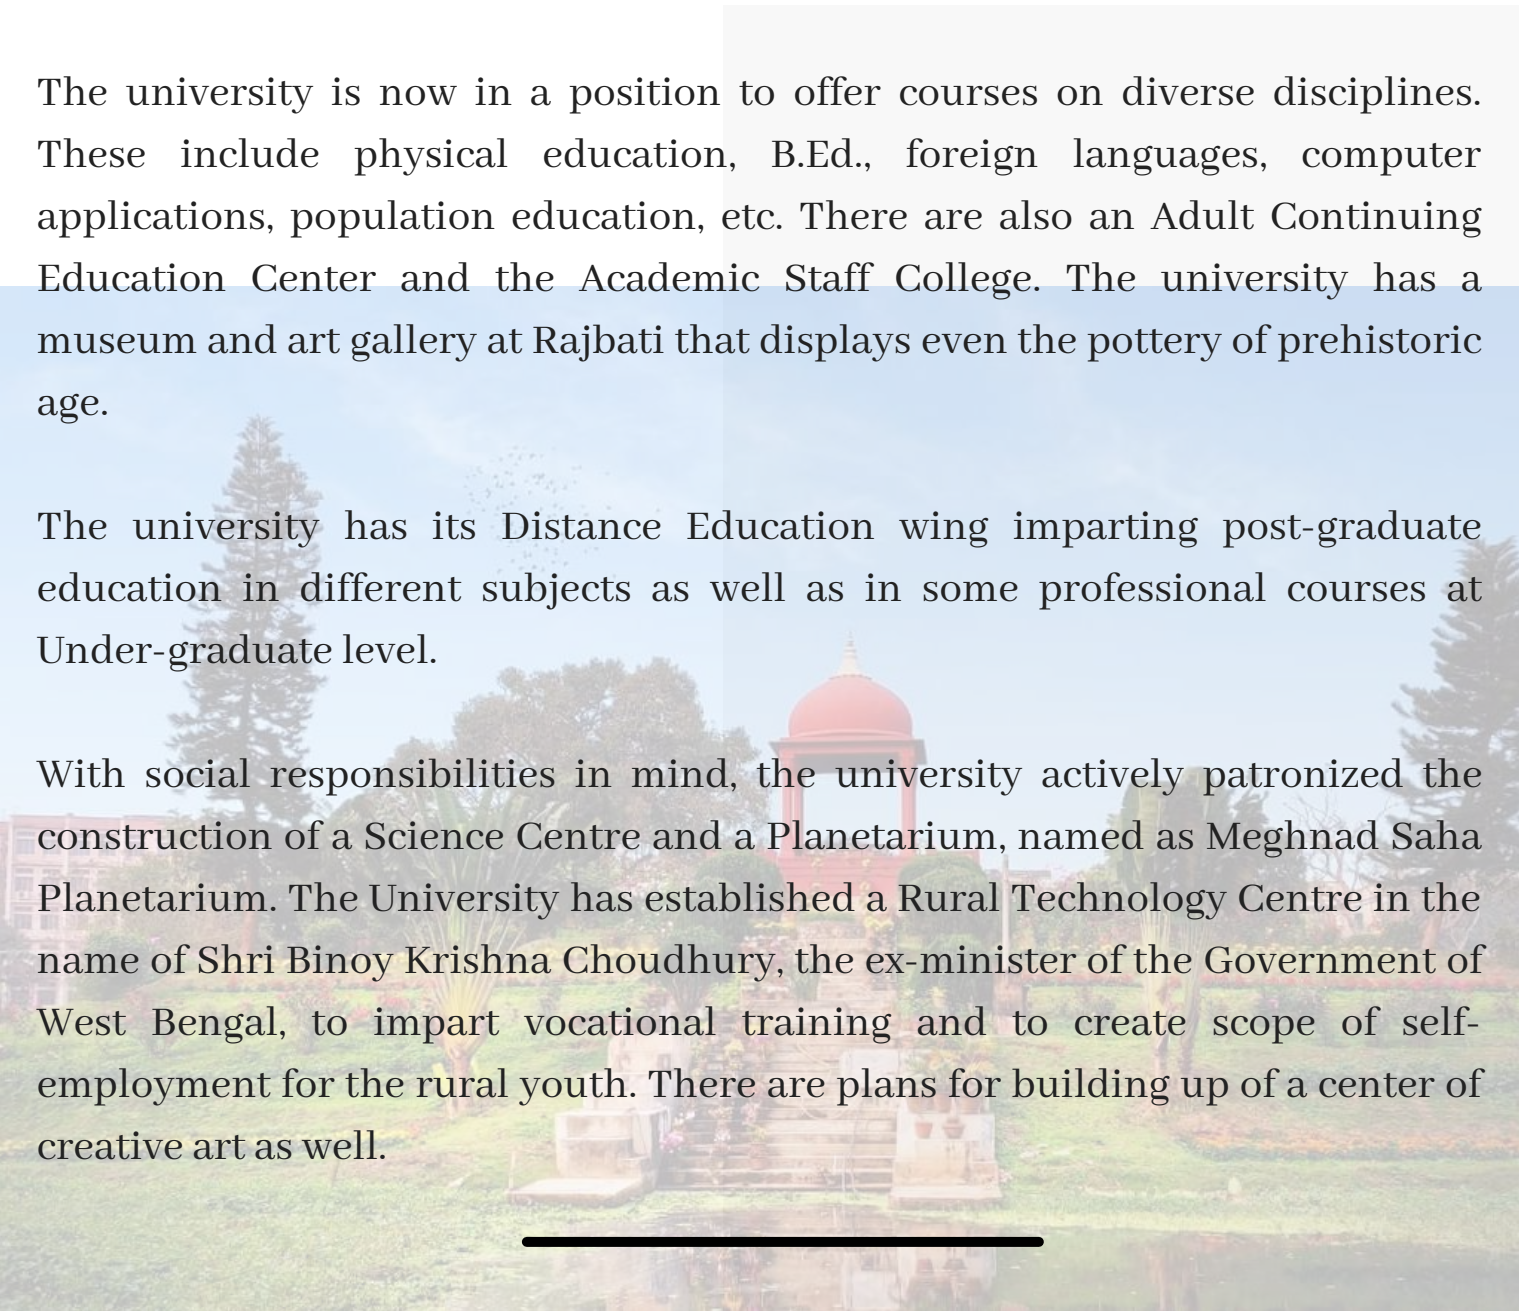

Academically, Burdwan University is feeding and nourishing more than 100 colleges. Its territorial jurisdiction extends over five districts - Burdwan, Hooghly (excluding Serampore Sub - Division), Bankura, Birbhum and Purulia. These constitute the greater part of Radh Bengal, the cradle of ancient civilization of India. The imprints of the past are strewn all over the Radh Bengal.

The university is now in a position to offer courses on diverse disciplines. These include physical education, B.Ed., foreign languages, computer applications, population education, etc. There are also an Adult Continuing Education Center and the Academic Staff College. The university has a museum and art gallery at Rajbati that displays even the pottery of prehistoric age.

The university has its Distance Education wing imparting post-graduate education in different subjects as well as in some professional courses at Under-graduate level.

With social responsibilities in mind, the university actively patronized the construction of a Science Centre and a Planetarium, named as Meghnad Saha Planetarium. The University has established a Rural Technology Centre in the name of Shri Binoy Krishna Choudhury, the ex-minister of the Government of West Bengal, to impart vocational training and to create scope of self-employment for the rural youth. There are plans for building up of a center of creative art as well.

VISION

The University of Burdwan is a place for empowerment of the youth; for the fusion and refinement of ideas coming from different directions as also those emanating from interactive minds. The university offers an opportunity to invent and reinvent the thoughtful minds, for widening the horizon much beyond their immediate confines. The University of Burdwan is a place to help disseminate the wisdom, ancient and modern, as also the art of critiquing them, among generations of student and teacher for betterment of the human social existence, both local and global.

MISSION

Away from hubbubs of the metropolis, the University of Burdwan and the ambience of its campus, a Bio-diversity Heritage Site, is committed to the pursuit of following objectives:

- > Creating the most vibrant knowledge pool providing comparable and competitive facilities.
- > Trying to achieve excellence in all fields of the university activity.
- > Empowering the backward social clusters of its hinterland through teaching-learning process beyond class room.

Message from
The Hon'ble Vice Chancellor
Prof. Nimai Chandra Saha

Dear Recruiter,
I have time and again reiterated how the Department of Law at the University of Burdwan has always held the befitting title of "The Factory of Judges", thanks to the remarkable impression left by our diligent students in their wake. I have always felt grateful that these curious and proficient students would entrust our Department with the task of building their knowledge and shaping their skills. This would eventually lead to stellar accomplishments by our students across various domains of the legal field, including the Bar and Bench, Academia, Corporate, and so on.

This is why it gives me immense pleasure to relate that our present batch of 3-Years' LL.B (Hons.) (2019-21) has fascinatingly nourished the culture of excellence and exclusivity at the Department sown by their predecessors in terms of developing the requisite legal acumen and adroitness. The Department, as always, has been quite attentive in mentoring these students and encouraging them to navigate the numerous spheres of the legal world to the best of their abilities. The students have been harmoniously moulded for the workplace through regular classes, projects and assignments, and periodical internships. Moreover, as a consequence of the global pandemic, our students are now more adept than ever at operating in the ambience of a digital territory.

Therefore, it is with great joy and enthusiasm that I invite you to interact with the passionate and dedicated students of the Batch of 2021. I strongly believe that every student, no matter how different they may have been from one another, has a lot to offer and will prove to be an invaluable and exemplary addition to your workplace.
