2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.		Since the onset of COVID-19 pandemic, The University of Burdwan took proactive steps to ensure uninterrupted teaching-learning process and the students were provided with continuous psychological and academic support through online mode using the available platforms like Zoom, G-Suite and other established online/social media platforms etc. Need-based meetings of various academic bodies concerning the problems of students have been convened to come up with feasible solutions. The ICT infrastructure of the University was developed continuously, and assessments were carried out by the university authority. Wherever feasible, the MHRD developed Virtual lab portal for laboratory classes have been utilised for the benefit of students. To facilitate the process, the Digital Learning Monitoring Cell of the university sensitized the department and identified the areas where the need-based support should be provided to the students. The examination system has been streamlined in line with the requirements of online/blended mode and was centrally monitored through a dedicated team that coordinates the online examination system in an effective manner covering the UG and PG colleges and departments. After initiation of the fully offline classes, special efforts were made to identify the gaps faced by the students in completing the curriculum and accordingly steps were taken to bridge the gap through extra classes, remedial classes, and special discussion sessions with the students. This ensured readiness of the students to appear in the regular examinations with higher degree of confidence after the fully online teaching-learning period. In the meantime, SWAYAM Local Chapter was established in the University and students were encouraged to take online courses from SWAYAM-NPTEL platform both for credit transfer and self-development. SPOC and departmental contact points were identified and through the network information about the available SWAYAM courses both for the July 2022 and upcoming January 2023 courses are regularly circulated among the students. As a result, many students opted for courses from SWAYAM for academic credit transfer. The pro-active measures taken by the University helped in timely completion of the curriculum, holding of examinations and publication of results.
