INTRODUCTION

Language teaching methods are constantly developing to meet the needs of diverse learners. Teachers today require practical skills and fresh ideas to make lessons more effective and engaging. To address this need, the Department of Arabic, The University of Burdwan, proposes to organize a one-day international teachers' training workshop in collaboration with the Indo-Arab Cultural Trust on “Teaching Language Skills: Effective and Innovative Methods” to strengthen the skills of teachers and improve the overall quality of language education.

Objectives:

This one-day workshop intends to make the teachers of Arabic language aware of the following facts:

- »»To familiarize teachers with effective strategies for teaching the four core language skills- listening, speaking, reading, and writing.
- »»To introduce innovative methods for enhancing vocabulary acquisition and usage in the classroom.
- »»To develop techniques for improving pronunciation and phonetic accuracy among learners.
- »»To explore engaging approaches for teaching grammar in a way that supports practical language use.
- »»To train teachers in designing learner-centered lesson plans that integrate multiple language elements.
- »»To demonstrate activities and tools that promote interactive and communicative language learning.
- »»To enhance teachers' ability to assess students' language skills through formative and summative evaluations.
- »»To share best practices for addressing diverse learning styles and language proficiency levels.
- »»To encourage the use of authentic materials and real-life contexts in teaching language skills.
- »»To inspire collaboration and knowledge-sharing among language educators for continuous professional growth.

Due to the scarcity of funds, no TA and DA will be provided, although the local hospitality will be arranged.
