Certification of Research Linkage

This is to certify that Dr. Uthpal Krishna Roy, Professor, Department of Botany, University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh, was engaged in ICCR-funded research work for pursuing a Ph.D. at the Plant Physiology & Biochemistry Research Laboratory, UGC Center for Advanced Study, Department of Botany, The University of Burdwan, with Professor Soumen Bhattacharjee as mentor and Coordinator from 2016 to 2022.

Dr. Roy worked on climate-resilient rice varieties of Bangladesh, and a research linkage existed between the Department of Botany at the University of Burdwan, India, and the Department of Botany at the University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh, until 2024. This research explored the redox biology of salinity-tolerant rice germplasms, utilising cytological fingerprints and genomic approaches.
