Report of Anti- Ragging committee

The BU has already established an Anti-Ragging Committee (ARC) and an Anti-Ragging Squad (ARS). The contact numbers of the ARC and ARS have been provided on the front page of the University website.

Fig. Anti Ragging Committee and helpline tab in the front page of the University of website

When a complaint is received by the ARC, the identity of the complainant is kept confidential. The ARS first visits the site, followed by a meeting held by the ARC. This is a regular practice. The ARS also visits various hostels as needed to raise awareness and sensitize students.

To promote awareness against ragging, the ARC organized a central seminar on August 12th. As part of Anti-Ragging Week, celebrated from August 12 to 18, the ARC and ARS visited different departments and interacted with students. Banners promoting anti-ragging were also displayed at various locations across the academic campus, including in both boys' and girls' hostels.

THE UNIVERSITY OF BURDWAN

Redressal & Mechanism of Addressing Student's Grievances

With an unflinching commitment to ensuring a campus free from fear, favour, prejudice, and discrimination in any form, our university has constituted several grievance redressal mechanisms including ICC, Anti-Ragging Committee, Anti-Ragging Squad, etc. Since ragging is a severe socio-psychological pathology, plaguing our academic campuses, a mere legal-formal measure can hardly arrest this menace. Hence, a holistic approach has been adopted by our university, which includes strict punitive measures of rustication, debarment to sensitization and counselling.

Formation of Internal Complaint Committee (ICC)

In compliance with the UGC (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of Women's Employees and Students in Higher Educational Institutions) Regulations, 2015, clause 4(1) to (6), our University has set up an Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) to keep a close vigil on the overall safety and security of women employees and students in the workplace and intend to address any sort of grievance in the tune of complain at its earliest possible time.

Formation of Anti-Ragging Committee: In conformity with the National Ragging Prevention Programme, our University has also adopted a zero-tolerance policy vis-à-vis any act of ragging. Accordingly, elaborate precautionary arrangements have been made to pre-empt any such incident, which includes among others student counselling, sensitization programmes and so on in addition to legal measures like the Anti-Ragging Committee, and formulation of Anti-Ragging Squad. Our institute has made the anti-ragging pledge mandatory in the form of undertaking at the time of admission.

Formation of Anti-Ragging Squad: The Anti-Ragging Squad of our University comprising of faculty members and selected non-teaching staff has become the omnipresent body, actively functioning within the campus to keep a tab on the deadly menace of ragging perpetrated on the pretext of 'introduction' or 'knowing each other'. Apart from the crackdown on the heinous act of ragging by immediate investigation and the recommendation of disciplinary measures, the Squad under the supervision and guidance of the Anti-Ragging Committee undertakes several other activities to instil confidence and a sense of security among the freshers. These include among others making frequent visits to places of student congregation like canteens, hostels, playgrounds, common rooms and classrooms; displaying anti-ragging posters with emergency numbers of contact in all the important locations of the campus; engaging freshers in different group activities like cultural fest, student fest, Saraswati Puja etc.; conducting regular Anti-ragging sensitization programmes in the campus by experts from general administration, law and order administration, legal fraternity. Further, considering the menace of ragging as a socio-psychological pathology, afflicting our academic institutions, our University has also conducted a series of psychological counselling sessions by bringing several noted clinical psychologists of the country to the campus. Finally, our University strongly believes in the philosophy that the 'ignited minds' enrolled in our institute require constant tending and empathy to facilitate their future life. Accordingly, we keep close coordination between students' grievances cell and student counselling forum.
